Murphys Apl. 10. 1836.

Dear John

I wrote to Sister Molly a few days since & intended then to write you, but was hurried off - We had a letter from Scott yesterday dated March 30.th He said he had been waiting to Murphys for a month & then expected to get off every day - We look for him daily. He doesn't want me to settle upon a home until he comes & I will not. I do not think now I will have time to go out to see you unless you think it necessary - I am anxious and determined to get to work somewhere very soon & feel much inclined sometimes to go right at home - Will determine very soon after I see Scott - My best love to Molly & kisses to the little one -

Your brother
Butler P. Anderson

State of Arkansas
1st Judicial Circuit

Be it remembered that John A. Andersen having presented himself to me as an applicant for license to practice as an Attorney at Law & Solicitor in Chancery in this State; & it having been made to appear to my satisfaction that he is of lawful age, of good moral character & properly & fully qualified for the practice of the same, I therefore hereby license said applicant to practice as an Attorney & Counselor at Law & Solicitor in Chancery in all the Circuit & Superior Courts in this State. Given under my hand as the Judge of the 1st Judicial Circuit of said State of Arkansas this 24th day of November AD 1836.

George W. Beasley
Judge of the 1st Judicial Circuit of Arkansas

Phillips Det.

I John A. Andersen do solemnly swear that I will well & truly support the Constitution of the United States & of the State of Arkansas, & will faithfully demean myself in the practice according to the best of my knowledge & ability. So help me God.
Sworn to & subscribed in open Court this November 25th 1836.

John A. Andersen
